JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

NOMINATIONS FOR MEMBERSHIP

The following one hundred forty-one applications are printed under the rules adopted by the Council in May. Under these rules, any candidate or nominee against whom no negative vote is received from a member of the Council within thirty days of publication is deemed to have been approved by the Council. Objection to any nominee may be addressed to the Secretary by any member. The names of the nominators follow the name of each candidate, in parenthesis. Nominators for whom no institution is specified are colleagues of the nominee.
